Cheve'yo 'Spirit Warrior'

The reason I want to name a falcon Cheve'yo is because a falcon acts like a Cheve'yo 'Spirit Warrior'. Cheve'yo comes to us from Native American Indians, who believe a falcon soars close to the heavens and is wise and all-seeing. The spirit part is that a falcon soars majestically and freely without complaint and the warrior part is that a falcon shows no mercy, not even to the toughest of animals. All in all, our San Jose falcons are Cheve'yo 'Spirit Warriors':

Oh falcon, oh falcon, as sleek as wind,
Oh falcon, oh falcon, as fast as a cheetah,
Oh falcon, oh falcon, as brave as 1,000 warriors,
Oh falcon, oh falcon, as wise as a sage,
Oh falcon, oh falcon, as beautiful as moonlight,
Oh falcon, oh falcon, as bright as a star,
Oh, Peregrine Falcon!
