

DISCLOSURE OF POST ELECTION PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

CITY OF SAN JOSÉ
FORM 504
Election 2016

Section 12.06.930 of the San José Municipal Code requires that a candidate or his or her controlled committee disclose any campaign-related agreements entered into by the candidate or controlled committee which provide for post-election payments. Such agreements include, but are not limited to, contingency payment or “bonus” payment plans offered by campaign consultants and agreements with persons who will receive compensation after the election for campaign services performed prior to the election. This form must be submitted to the City Clerk after the agreement is entered into and on or before the filing date of the next pre-election statement.
