

Statement from Mayor Sam Liccardo regarding the Relocation of Hewlett Packard Enterprise to the South Bay:

San Jose, Calif. – Mayor Sam Liccardo has issued the following statement upon the announcement that Hewlett Packard Enterprise is moving its operations to the South Bay, including a sizable presence in San Jose.

“I’m thrilled to welcome Hewlett Packard Enterprise to San Jose. For decades, Hewlett Packard has served as a major force in driving the innovation that put Silicon Valley on the map, and we are pleased that they have decided to bring hundreds of employees to San Jose. I would like to thank the Hewlett Packard team for investing in San Jose and look forward to helping facilitate their future growth in the years ahead.”
