

2008 Reuse RFP Selected Providers

Council District	Reuse Facility	Service Provider	Services to be Provided
1	Rainbow Neighborhood Center	Friends Outside	Provide non-cost or low-cost services for after-school and summer camp youth programs for youth ages 7-17 that have been impacted by incarceration.
1	San Tomas Neighborhood Center	Eastern European Service Agency	Provide services to new immigrants and refugees from the former Yugoslavia and Eastern Europe with integration into American society. Programs will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Senior Program; ▪ ESL and Citizenship classes; ▪ Preventive Health Education; ▪ Peer Support; ▪ Informal Social gatherings; ▪ Parenting and Education workshops; ▪ Youth Dance group; and Special Events such as Santa's Visit.
2	Edenvale Youth and Family Center	Boys & Girls Club	Comprehensive year-round youth program during non-school hours, evenings, and summer including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Safe Haven Evening Program (Ages 13-18): arts, culture, sports, and technology. ▪ Power Hour (Ages 6-18): homework help and tutoring program (four days per week, 3:00-5:00 pm); ▪ SMART Moves (Skills Mastery and Resistance Training) (Ages 6-9; 10-12; 13-15; and Parents): alcohol, tobacco, drug use and premature sexual activity prevention program ▪ Torch and Keystone Club (Ages 11-13): character and leadership development programs for middle and high school youth ▪ Arts and Cultural Enrichment: fine arts, performing arts, culinary arts, digital arts, and creative writing programs ▪ Sports, Fitness, and Recreation programs ▪ Technology; and Career Development programs
3	Olinder Neighborhood Center	MACSA	Provide a state-licensed Latchkey Program for children 6-12 years of age for working families, families enrolled in training programs or educational courses.
3	Olinder Neighborhood Center	Northside Theater Company	The Northside Theater provides a five-play season annually, and free ticket program to groups and organizations, and an intern program for young people interested in learning the technical side of stage productions.

2008 Reuse RFP Selected Providers

Council District	Reuse Facility	Service Provider	Provider Services
5	Joseph George Youth Center	Dr. George Castro	Provide after school Science and Computer Workshop programs for neighborhood youth over the age of 8 at no cost in partnership with the Alum Rock Educational Foundation and Joseph George Middle School.
5	Old Hillview Library	East Side Union High School District	Services will include six studios developed to support different forms of visual and performing arts including digital media arts where students can develop transferable job skills in animation, game design, graphics, and web design. Other studios will focus on dance, theater, drama, art, and choral music.
6	Hamann Park Neighborhood Center	San José Youth Shakespeare	Rehearsal space only. Community Shakespeare performing arts group for youth 8-20.
8	Meadowfair Community Center	Kidango	Provide all-day Child Development Center to serve low-income families in Meadowfair community.
8	Welch Park Neighborhood Center	Filipino Youth Coalition	Youth and inter-generational programs focused on East Side high schools to include prevention and intervention services, leadership skill development, one-on-one motivational sessions and support groups, parenting workshops, cultural activities including music, dance, and cultural performances
9	Houge Park Bldg #1	San Jose Astronomical Society (SJAS)	Continue free telescope viewing (celestial viewings), beginner's astronomy classes, and lectures for the community.
9	Houge Park Neighborhood Center Bldg #2	Arab American Cultural Center (AACC)	Services open to general public. Day program for seniors. Additional plans calls for an Arab TV program, youth programs, tutoring, cultural and art demonstration and classes. Services to start subject to fingerprinting clearances.
10	Silicon Valley Future Stars	The Spot, Almaden Youth Center	After-school program for youth that focuses on youth cultural awareness and educational enrichment. The SVFS programs include career training in technology, broadcasting, and performing arts.