OVERVIEW

Service Delivery Environment

- Job Growth and Employment: Unemployment for the San José metro area and City of San José dropped to historically low numbers (3% vs. 2.9%). As of February 2018, total employment in the metro area was 1.05 million, representing 2.4% annual growth since February 2017. As of June 2017 (the most current period available), the City of San José was home to 402,689 payroll jobs, representing a 12.2% year-over-year increase. Currently, San José is home to a labor force of 556,500 of whom 540,200 are employed. An estimated 16,300 San José residents are unemployed, representing a decrease from 21,100 in February 2017.

- Housing Affordability: According to the Santa Clara County Association of Realtors, the median sales price of a single family home in San José as of February 2018 was $1,205,000, an increase of 26% from February 2017’s median sales price of $955,000. Median sales prices for condominiums/townhomes for February 2018 was $720,000, an increase of 19% from February 2017’s median price of $605,500. As long as the economy remains robust, the tight housing inventory, relatively low interest rates, and strong demand for housing in San José will likely lead to higher housing prices.

- Rental Market: Rents in San José continue to remain among the highest in the nation and, therefore, unaffordable to lower-income residents. However, rents appear to have flattened over the past twelve months. According to Rent Jungle, the average rent for a market-rate one-bedroom as of February 2018 was $2,479, signifying no change from the year prior. Over the same time period, the average rent for a market-rate two-bedroom was $3,085, a decrease of 3%. Assuming that no more than 30% of income goes to housing costs, a household would need to earn $99,160 annually to afford a one-bedroom apartment and $123,400 for a two-bedroom apartment in San José. As of Q4 2017 San José’s overall vacancy rate was 5%, in-line with what is deemed the ideal vacancy rate of a healthy rental market. The demand for affordable housing far exceeds the supply and the vacancy rate for affordable housing is nearly 0% as evidenced by long wait lists at most developments.

OVERVIEW

Development Services Budget Summary

Over the last year, the Development Services Partners have continued to experience a high level of activity, and strong activity is expected to continue in 2018-2019. Continued implementation of the upgraded Integrated Permit System and small cell utility permitting will be the priorities for the Development Services Partners in 2018-2019. After adjusting for base changes that result in a net decrease of 5.95 positions to the program, position changes for the Development Fee Program included in this budget are: an addition of 8.35 positions in the Public Works Development and Utility Fee Programs primarily for small cell utility permits and to realign staff to capital programs, an increase of 2.24 positions in the Planning Development Fee Program for the integrated permit system upgrade project, an increase of 2.21 positions in the Building Development Fee Program primarily for the integrated permit system upgrade project and an increase in the Fire Development Fee Program by 1.14 positions, primarily due to the integrated permit system upgrade project. The staffing changes include the continuation of positions supporting the implantation of the upgraded Integrated Permit System used by the Development Services Partners (2.0 Planner IV, 2.0 Senior Engineer, 1.0 Senior Analyst, and 1.0 Supervising Applications Analyst) and new positions (1.0 Building Inspector Combination, 2.0 Engineer II’s, 1.0 Principal Engineer/Architect, 1.0 Principal Engineering Technician, 1.0 Senior Construction Inspector, and 1.0 Senior Engineering Technician) to address increased activity for small cell utility permits that is anticipated as a result of the implementation of the City’s Broadband and Digital Inclusion Strategy and workload anticipated for the Public Works Development Fee Program.

In December 2016, City Council accepted the City of San José Development Services Cost Recovery Analysis, Process Improvements, Calculation of Unearned Revenues, and Refund Processing Report. The report showed the Development Services Partners are covering approximately 81% of their costs in the form of fees and charges collected from customers, with the individual Partners capturing between 76% and 84% of their respective costs. To move closer to full cost recovery with less reliance on the Development Fee Program Reserves, the first phase of fee changes was included in the 2017-2018 Adopted Fees and Charges document. The 2018-2019 Fees and Charges Report will include the remaining fee changes recommended in the report for the Building and Public Works Development Fee Programs to help close the cost recovery gaps. For the Planning Development Fee Program average fee increases of 34% and a restructuring of the tree permits are proposed to generate additional revenue. The fee adjustments combined with process improvements and the implementation of the new permitting system in the coming fiscal years will help increase staff efficiency and improve the customer service experience. The revenue from these adjustments to the fees is summarized in the General Fund Revenue section of this document.

1. Staffing vacancies have reduced capacity for soliciting feedback on new development projects.
2. The Envision San José 2040 General Plan includes capacity/plans for 120,000 new dwelling units. No additional dwelling units were added or are planned to be added to the overall capacity of the General Plan.
3. While additional positions have been added in the past several years and some positions have been filled, vacancies still remain as a result of the continuous departure of existing staff and difficulties in filling the positions quickly with qualified candidates. The Administration continues to recruit for a wide range of development services positions.
4. Discretionary projects are those that require a public hearing (e.g. zoning change, General Plan amendment).
5. Ministerial projects are administrative in nature and do not require a public hearing (e.g. water heater replacement).
