Hi Kieulan-

Since I don't believe we will have an overhead projector, here's my recommendation on the Capitol Caltrain Station. If we're going to solve our transportation and housing issues regionally, we need to think bigger and be bold! The attached image would extend the staff recommended vision to include over 100 acres with the potential for 10,000 housing units and supporting retail services.

Thanks,

Shawn

Subject: Schedule Updates and Documents for Envision San Jose 2040 Task Force Meeting no. 4 (February 27, 2020)

Hello Envision San Jose 2040 Task Force,

Due to the amount of time spent on each topic, we have reorganized the topics and schedule and added an addition meeting as shown below.

- Meeting #4: Neighborhood Business Districts and Opportunity/Plex/Missing Middle Housing on February 27, 2020
- Meeting #5: Coyote Valley and Capacity Shifts on March 26, 2020
- Meeting #6: Evergreen- East Hills Development Policy & Transportation Policies (Vehicle Miles Traveled Tier II Policies) on April 30, 2020
- Meeting #7: Summary and Next Steps on May 11, 2020

The following materials are available on the Envision San Jose 2040 4-Year Review website to assist you in preparing for the Task Force meeting on Thursday, February 27th.

- Updated 4-Year Review Topic Schedule
- Task Force Meeting Agenda
- Task Force Meeting Memo
- Correspondence

Please review the documents listed above before next Thursday's Task Force meeting. A hardcopy of the materials will be available at the meeting. If you would like the printed materials earlier, please email staff for this accommodation and copies will be available on Monday, February 24th after 2pm for pickup from the 3rd floor lobby at will call. If you have any correspondence, please send to staff by 12pm on February 17th and we can print out hardcopies for the meeting.

If you have questions on any of the materials listed above prior to the meeting please contact Planning staff at GeneralPlanStaff@sanjoseca.gov with the following subject line: Question: GP 4-Year Review Meeting No. 4.

As a reminder, next Thursday's meeting will start promptly at 6:00 pm at San Jose City Hall in the Council Wing Rooms. Parking is available underneath City Hall; the garage entrance is located on 6th Street between E. Santa Clara St. and E. San Fernando St.

Light refreshments of coffee, hot tea, and snacks will be provided.
