

Real Leadership. Real Homes.

Anthony is a fierce advocate for housing affordability. As Chair of the San Jose Planning Commission, he has approved the construction of over 3,500 new homes, including 500 affordable homes. He has streamlined the approval of emergency shelters to support the homeless and approved 96 new inpatient mental health beds to combat our mental health crisis.

Anthony Tordillos
for San Jose City Council of reasons to vote

Anthony Tordillos
for City Council.

3,500

37,000

Turn in your ballot for San Jose's special election by June 24th and vote for Anthony Tordillos, the only candidate who's already building a better San Jose.

Endorsed by:

The Mercury News

Mayor
Matt Mahan

Ad paid for by Bay Area Municipal Elections Committee Committee major funding from Mark Patrosso
Amazon.com Services LLC
IBEW 332 Education Fund (Sponsored by International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 332) not authorized by a candidate or a committee controlled by a candidate.

96

3,500

new homes approved including 500 affordable units

As Chair of the Planning Commission, Anthony Tordillos delivered solutions—not delays.

37,000

future homes

Anthony Tordillos led the rezoning of 150 acres of commercial land—unlocking up to 37,000 new homes in San Jose.

96

inpatient beds

Anthony fast-tracked emergency shelter approvals and added 96 inpatient mental health beds—delivering results and compassion.